5 Reasons to Attend

International experts and leading researchers

ICADTS brings together leading experts to discuss and debate hot topics faced by communities around the globe and share best practices. Since the first ICADTS meeting in 1950 in Stockholm, Sweden, this world class conference attracts people who are passionate about eliminating fatalities and injuries influenced by drugs and alcohol.

Something for everyone

T2019 is an opportunity for researchers, practitioners, law enforcement, legislators, private and not for profit organizations as well as those from the medical, education, science and public policy disciplines to share ideas and research on alcohol, drugs and traffic safety.

World class host city

Edmonton, Alberta is recognized as a premier city for international conferences. Our facilities are second to none and our people will ensure that your conference experience is memorable. While you are here, why not take a trip to our famous Rocky Mountains. Jasper National Park is a paradise for adventure seekers and only 363 km away! Or go a bit further into the Rockies with a trip to the majestic Banff National Park only 415 km away.

Networking opportunity

For three days at T2019 you will have the opportunity to meet and mix with a diverse group of experts in a variety of formal and social settings.

Great value

T2019 will offer early bird registration and discounted blocks of hotel accommodation. For many the low Canadian dollar makes this a truly affordable opportunity.
