How to Submit an Abstract

Submissions must be completed online, by visiting the following link: T2019 Late- Breaking Abstract Submission Form

On the online form, you will be asked to create a profile before submitting your abstract. Once your profile has been created, you may submit multiple abstracts.

Submission Guidelines

1. Abstracts must be submitted electronically using the official online submission form. There is no fee to submit abstract(s)
2. Abstracts must identify the presenting author along with email address and phone number
3. Avoid the use of abbreviations, symbols and bullets. First use of acronyms are to be spelled out
4. Errors, misspellings and incorrect abbreviations will not be corrected
5. Minimize the use of charts as this detail is not used to evaluate the merit of your abstract
6. An individual or organization may submit more than one abstract
7. Edits to submitted abstracts may be made up to the submission deadline. Instructions for making edits can be found on the online abstract submission form
8. The conference program committee may propose an alternative presentation format, based on the available times in the conference program
9. Abstract submissions and presentations must be in English only
10. Abstracts may not exceed 300 words (excluding the abstract heading and references)

Conditions of Participation

1. If an abstract is accepted, the presenter(s) agree(s) to register for the Conference and pay the appropriate conference registration fee
2. The conference is not responsible for any expenses incurred by the abstract presenter including but not limited to the development of the accepted poster, shipping, travel, registration or accommodation
3. Basic Audio-Visual equipment will be available for oral presentations, including a laptop (PC), data projector, screen, slide advancer, and microphone

Copyright Permission

By submitting abstracts to the Conference, submitters authorize, upon acceptance, the permission to reproduce their abstract in the Conference syllabus and on the Conference website and may be photographed, tweeted, etc.
